Luke 3.7-18

John is talking to those who have come to be baptized. He explains that they need to change their behaviour if they want to live for God.

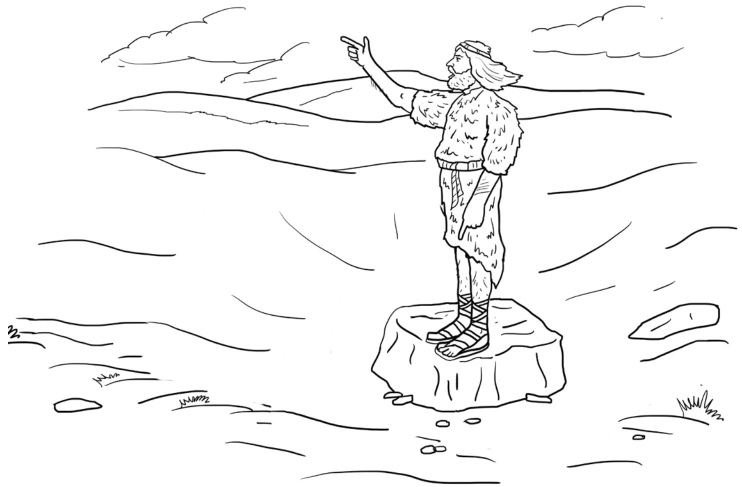
What should we do? Draw your ideas of how we can be 'good news' around this person.

Puzzle

Jesus talks about the action people should take: match the pictures of what people have with how Jesus says we can be a sign of the good news.

Draw

John was talking to the people. Can you add the people he was talking to in this picture?



Write

Can you unscramble the words to discover who spoke to John?

Lots of the crowd asked John what they should do. They included, rolsseid and eeplop and xta srotclecol
